

Instructions for Immigrant Visa Applicants

Lima, Peru

Birth, Marriage, Divorce and Death certificates (as appropriate)

All certificates (including those from Lima) must be either issued by, or certified by, the Peruvian national civil records registry ("RENIEC"). RENIEC offices issue original birth certificates for some areas in Lima; RENIEC offices throughout Peru can certify the authenticity of certificates from all other areas.

Unobtainable
birth certificates

An ecclesiastical notary must certify all baptismal certificates.

Military Records

If you have previously served in the Peruvian military, you will need to present a "Certificado de Antecedents Judiciales y/o Penales" issued by the "Consejo Supremo de Justicia Militar" (CSJM). For more information, see www.csjm.mil.pe/certificado.htm.

Police certificates

Multiple police certificates are required for each visa applicant aged 16 years or older. The table below shows how many police certificates are required based on where each applicant lives and has lived previously. Present and former residents of the United States should NOT obtain any police certificates covering their residence in the U.S.

IF the applicant...	AND...	THEN the applicant needs ...
